

Detailed rules of conducting the recruitment procedure for each specialization.

STAGE I – common to all specializations

The Recruitment Committee of the Doctoral School performs a substantive assessment of the documentation submitted by the candidate (level of education, quality of scientific or artistic achievements to date).

Recruitment documentation needs to be sent in the pdf format to the individual dedicated folder generated in the recruitment system;

- the candidate's name and surname needs to be provided while uploading files;
- the final shape and quality of the documents is the responsibility of the candidate.

Candidates who receive at least 21 points will be selected for the next stage of the recruitment process.

STAGE II – practical test, separate for each specialization

Music theory

- Delivering a lecture presenting the results of own research in the field of music theory (not including the scope of research included in the candidate's thesis/master dissertation) – an equivalent of a conference paper (duration ca. 20 min. presentation, and 10 min. discussion with the committee).

Composition

- presentation by the candidate of original selected compositions (both scores and recordings); the duration time is 20 minutes for the presentation and 10 minutes for the discussion with the committee.
